What Do Youth Learn?

YEY summer program is a 4-week accelerated program run by two trained facilitators.

The sessions are delivered twice a week for 90 minutes in an online class setting via Zoom.

The classes offers plenty of activities to encourage youth participation and teamwork. YEY curriculum is a developed from the Slight Edge Principles. Each class shares a new principle which builds upon the previous principle; helping students take accountability for their thoughts, feelings and actions. Ultimately, the program moves students into a place of self-assurance, compassion, and leadership.

Tell me more, What is YEY about?

Youth Empowering Youth (YEY) hopes to inspire the next generation of youth leaders.

YEY creates a safe environment for youth to cultivate a sense of confidence, compassion and self-assurance. The program coaches youth to be accountable for their own thoughts, feelings, and actions; helping them to become responsible citizens in this world.

Also, we believe that everyone has a unique gift and value to offer to make our world a better and more engaged place. Our program will serve as a catalyst to help youth explore their talents and contribute to the community in a powerful, positive and meaningful way.

Topics we will cover include:

- Ripple Effect
- Attitude Creates Your Life
- The Moment You Stop Blaming, You take Back Your Power
- Take Action! With Small Steps
- Fail Forward to Success
- Drive Your Life with Powerful Habits
- Be a Student of Life
- Momentum is your Responsibility

Who are we?

The Youth Empowering Youth program is delivered by Low Entropy, a registered Charity (72784 7691 RR0001), that is making personal growth accessible to all, and in doing so providing people with the traits and tools to change themselves and the world. What's unique about our program is that it has a structure to foster growth and development. Change starts from within, and our organization sees personal growth as a vehicle for global change.
