CONNECTION

Group photo

On Friday, October 9th, we gathered for an afternoon of warm welcomes, friendly faces, delicious treats, and plenty of laughter as we prepared for another exciting season of connection between generations.

We were fortunate to enjoy some delicious catering by Isabela Almeida from Seed 2 You, who treated us to a wonderful assortment of baked goods, chocolate-stuffed dates, and a variety of comforting hot drink mixes. A heartfelt thank-you to Isabela for adding such a special touch to our afternoon!

We also had the opportunity to break the ice with a fun activity led by Ishir, our newest Bridging Generations intern. It was a great way to get everyone talking, sharing, and feeling more comfortable with one another.

Throughout the orientation, we introduced ourselves, explored the exciting weekly themes ahead, and shared a glimpse of what participants can look forward to over the coming weeks. Most importantly, it was an opportunity to begin building the connections that make Bridging Generations so special.

Up Next: Our First Session!

Friday, October 16 | 4:00–6:00 PM

Our first weekly theme is Trust, a fitting place to begin. We're looking forward to seeing everyone again, welcoming new friendships, and discovering all the wonderful conversations and experiences this fall cycle will bring.
